7. Upon information and belief, all of BARRES' predecessor(s) were the Chief Executive Officers of all parishes and parish schools in the DIOCESE and as part of said responsibilities assigned the priests to work in the parishes, including RICHARD SCHAEFER (hereinafter "SCHAEFER". This includes those Bishops who assigned SCHAEFER to his parish positions.
8. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, BARRES and the above-referenced predecessor Bishops in the Office of the Bishop along with Defendant DIOCESE created the policies and procedures to be followed by priests within the DIOCESE. The Office of the Bishop and Defendant DIOCESE were responsible for investigating complaints against its parish clergy. In this capacity, the Office of the Bishop either directly or through Diocesan officials appointed by them, established policies and procedures by which complaints of sexual abuse against parish clergy, priests, and staff were to be dealt with and investigated by the DIOCESE.

9. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, the Office of the Bishop was also responsible for removing and/or suspending parish clergy and priests from their duties.

The abuse occurred in various locations throughout the ST. PHILIP rectory, including the office and SCHAEFER's bedroom, at SCHAEFER's mother's home in Nassau County, and on Boy Scout

20. Upon information and belief, at the time of the acts alleged herein, SCHAEFER was an employee of, and acting as an agent of Defendants DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP.
21. Upon information and belief, Defendants DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP had a duty to protect Plaintiff as a minor parishioner from SCHAEFER's criminal sexual acts.

22. Upon information and belief, Defendants DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP failed to adequately and completely supervise SCHAEFER, and as a result of this failure and negligence, proximately caused Plaintiff to be sexually abused by SCHAEFER.
23. The aforementioned occurrences of sexual abuse were caused by the negligence, carelessness, recklessness, and the willful, wanton, reckless and grossly negligent conduct of Defendants DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP and their agents, servants, and/or employees, in failing to properly and adequately supervise the conduct of SCHAEFER as it related to Plaintiff.
24. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional distress, confusion, humiliation, fright, anxiety, a severe shock to his nervous system, and has been caused to suffer physical pain and mental anguish, emotional and psychological damages as a result thereof, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature; and that Plaintiff as a result has become and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical expenses for treatment of said maladies.

PHILIP and their agents, servants, and employees, knew or should have known that SCHAEFER violated DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP's relevant rules, regulations and protocols prohibiting priests like SCHAEFER from sexually abusing and otherwise harming minor parishioners, including Plaintiff.
30. The Defendants DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP and their agents, servants, and employees were negligent, careless and reckless and acted willfully, wantonly and were grossly negligent in failing to warn Plaintiff that the failure of SCHAEFER to abide by DIOCESE and ST. PHILIP's rules, regulations and protocols regarding prohibitions on employees being alone with minor parishioners put Plaintiff at risk for being sexually abused by SCHAEFER.
31. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional distress, confusion, humiliation, fright, anxiety, a severe shock to his nervous system, and has been caused to suffer physical pain and mental anguish, emotional and psychological damages as a result thereof, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature; and that Plaintiff as a result has become and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical expenses for treatment of said maladies.

(NEGLIGENT FAILURE TO PROVIDE A SAFE AND SECURE ENVIRONMENT)

35. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.
